Newsletter

This newsletter is the last one for this season and there will be no meetings during the summer. Our Fall Season of meetings will begin on September 28, 2004. The meetings will continue to be held on the fourth Tuesday of each month except for December. During the summer, members with specific research questions may contact Myron Momryk, Mike Dowhan, or Bud Budzinski and we will attempt to answer inquiries.

Annual Report

During the summer, material on Ukrainian genealogical research will be compiled and published in an Annual Report. A copy of this report will be distributed to members at the September meeting. Members with any material which they would like to submit for this Annual Report are encouraged to contact Myron Momryk, Mike Dowhan, or Bud Budzinski. Material of interest would be articles on family history (success stories), web sites, and other sources with information on Ukrainian genealogy, book reviews on publications, research tips, suggestions and related information.

Visit to Ukrainian Archives in Lviv, Ukraine

Chris and Elaine MacPhail are visiting Lviv from 25 to 29 May and they plan to also visit the Ukrainian State Historical Archives. Chris and Elaine have agreed to make a presentation on their research trip to our Group in the Fall.

April, 2004 Speaker

Volodymyr Katrushenko gave a detailed presentation on the Ukrainian origin of names on April 27. He has submitted a copy of his presentation which will be published in our annual report. Some members have asked if Volodymyr could return at a future meeting to answer specific questions dealing with Ukrainian names. Volodymyr has agreed to answer specific questions regarding names from members and he can be contacted at dusko@sympatico.ca

Post 1901 Census

There has been no new developments regarding legal action taken by some genealogists to force the release of the 1911 National Census of Canada. A hearing is scheduled in the Federal Court in Calgary for June 8, 2004. There can be no further action until the hearing has taken place. For further information, please check the Post 1901 Census Project Web Site at
