

Award-winning writer Myrna Kostash discusses her latest book "Ghosts in a Photograph" which delves into the lives of her grandparents, all of whom moved from Galicia, now present-day Ukraine, to Alberta at the turn of the twentieth century. Discovering a packet of family mementos, Kostash begins questioning what she knows about her extended families' pasts and whose narrative is allowed to prevail in Canada.

Born and raised in Edmonton, Myrna Kostash is the author of the classic "All of Baba's Children", "No Kidding: Inside the World of Teenage Girls", winner of the Alberta Culture and Writers' Guild of Alberta prize for Best Non-Fiction, and "Prodigal Daughter: A Journey to Byzantium", which received the 2010 City of Edmonton Book Prize, the Writers' Guild of Alberta Wilfred Eggleston Award for Best Nonfiction, and was shortlisted for the 2011 Runcimann Award (UK).
